Skin Cancer Screening Clinic a Success

167 people took advantage of the free skin cancer screening clinic held yesterday, Thursday, June 17th at Central Care Cancer Center. The clinic was sponsored by Central Care Cancer Center and Newman Regional Health. Of the 167 people who were screened, 46 people were referred to their primary care physician for further screening or treatment. Dr. Terence Tan, Medical Oncologist with Central Care Cancer Center, Dr. Kendall Wright with Newman Family Medicine, and Dr. Tim Harris with Newman Surgical Specialists volunteered their evening for this community service.

Dr. Terence Tan, Medical Oncologist with Central Care Cancer Center, examines some suspicious spots on Donald Blaylock's arm.

Pat Forsythe of Emporia has Dr. Tim Harris, General Surgeon with Newman Surgical Specialists, look at a suspicious spot on the top of her ear at the free skin cancer screening clinic held on Thursday.
